Clues for the week of May 11

Words (vocabulary) we may have become familiar with over the past 8 weeks

1. To value the work or service of others. To be grateful or thankful for something.
I _____ your help with my homework.
2. When you give to others without expecting something in return. I will _____ a few canned goods for our food drive. (Another word for donate)
3. To understand what someone is saying or to understand what you just read in a book.
4. An electronic device used to display a variety of shows. This is what I watch Netflix on.
5. A pharmacist will dispense this. A doctor will prescribe it.

If you need a little help or want to check if you are on the right track. The grid below shows all the word parts for the answers. Use each part one time to build all 5 of the vocabulary words.
